

Sino-Tibetan Gilt-Bronze Figure of Tara

Qing Dynasty, 18th century

16cm high

Stock no.: A4135

The figure of Tara is seated in lalitasana on a double-lotus base. Tara is adorned with a five-leaf crown and necklaces around the chest and waist. The right hand is held in varadamudra; the left hand is held in vitarkamudra. The downcast face is depicted with a tranquil expression.